

Ever thought about becoming a Member or Friend of GAVCA?

Then now is the right time!

Here at GAVCA we love welcoming new Members and Friends, and we know that joining GAVCA brings voluntary and community organisations some great benefits:

Improve your organisation's effectiveness with our Organisational Development support:

- Up to 2 hours of free organisational development support, tailored to meet your specific needs
- Model policies to help you to develop your own
- Reduced rates for using our back-office resources including room hire and mailing services
- Free On-line Human Resources and Health and Safety Legislation Help
- Payroll services
- Free advertising on our Jobs page of our website (saving £50 per ad)
- Free analyses from our database of information about Gloucestershire's VCS
- Our quarterly newsletter, VCS Pulse

Develop your staff and volunteers with our Individual Learning and Development support:

- Reduced rates for GAVCA training
- Access to cheap online training resources from My Learning Pool

And not forgetting...

Members of GAVCA also have the opportunity to influence our services and future direction by voting at our Annual General Meeting.

Individuals who belong to a Member organisation can also put themselves forward to become a GAVCA Trustee.

If you would like to become a Member or a Friend of GAVCA then all the information you need is on the enclosed form.

Just complete and return the form to us, with your payment (if appropriate).
